When we created It's About Time for a Baltimore Business client, we incorporated the best strategies of Steven Covey and other life management leaders.

What can you expect from It's About Time?

- Accomplish more with less stress
- Have a greater sense of balance in your life
- Never miss an important deadline or appointment again!

Yes! You can experience all that when you learn to:

- Assign appropriate significance to tasks
- Use time blocking techniques to increase focus
- Apply productivity quadrant planning to improve effectiveness
- Eliminate unsuspected time wasters from your schedule

Feedback from one of our clients:

"The time blocking strategy has given me more focus and helped me stay on task. I am getting more done and have a clearer sense of my accomplishments. What a great feeling it is to be on top of my task list rather buried in it!"

~Karen Shannon, owner, M-Palm
